SUBJECT: Application for Subsidized Housing Forms

Further to the Communiqué dated June 1, 2022 announcing amendments to the Housing Services Act, 2011 and the new regulation establishing income and asset limits, please be advised that the Application for Subsidized Housing Form has recently been updated. The updates include revisions to the income declaration section, the addition of an asset declaration section as well as the order and some general information.

There is also a revised Building Selection Form that includes updates due to the addition of new housing developments.

All new versions can be accessed on-line at Social Housing | City of Hamilton and physical copies are available at 350 King St. E, suite 110.

Please destroy any previously printed/saved versions of the application form you may have.

If there are any further questions, please contact your Housing Administration Officer or ATH at ath@hamilton.ca
