

Hamilton surpasses $2 billion in annual construction at record pace

Hamilton

With over two months to go, the City of Hamilton set a record for the highest annual construction value at $2,133,057,915, surpassing the 2021 record.

- 2023 has seen the largest single permit by dwellings created for 931 units.
- Industrial and commercial projects have increased 53% over the previous 3-year average for a total of $645 million.