

Detail from Listen to the City's Sounds

AMY EGERDEEN Listen to the City's Sounds

Paper, watercolour paints, wire

“This installation is a reminder to really listen to the sounds that Hamilton offers us: the sounds of the city & the music made by incredible local musicians. I listened to Shanika Maria's "Childish Games EP" on repeat while creating this work.”

- Amy Egerdeen

Amy Egerdeen is a Hamilton-based artist & community worker. She creates her own screenprints, books, and zines for sale and exhibition. She is a professional workshop creator and facilitator, with experience in both community-based and arts-based workshop creation. Amy is also the co-founder of the annual Hamilton Feminist Zine Fair. Find out more about Amy at www.amyegeerdeen.com.

The Anne Foster Windows

As part of the City of Hamilton, Tourism and Culture Division's ongoing support of the creative industries, local artists are invited to create and install window displays that celebrate Hamilton's music scene. This space, the Anne Foster Windows, is a fitting home for music themed displays as the entryway lead to the Anne Foster Music shop for more than 50 years (1942-1995). Installations will rotate every 3 months from September 2017 through 2019.

Visit www.hamilton.ca/music for more information.

