<sup>1</sup> Provincially Shared refers to programs such as Public Health Services, Ontario Works and others for which the municipality has little control over their cost.

<sup>3</sup> Education tax rates are set by the Government of Ontario. Municipalities are required to bill and collect education taxes, which are then paid to the respective school boards.
