Applicant Name:

Member ID:

Applicants under 18 years of age, who have chosen to leave home, are not eligible for Ontario Works Financial Assistance unless there are 'Special Circumstances' that justify their eligibility.

The Case Manager must assess if special circumstances exist, by determining if it is in the best interest of the youth to live outside of their parental home.

To help the Case Manager make a decision on your eligibility, please answer the following questions to the best of your knowledge:

What was happening at home that led you to leave?

Have you left your parents' home before? When? Why?

Have you discussed your problems at home with any adults, such as relatives, doctor, school official, clergy, or police? If yes, with whom (names and telephone numbers)?

Have you ever been involved with the Children's Aid Society or Catholic Children's Aid Society? When? Who was your Worker?

Are you/have you ever been involved with any other agencies? If so, which organizations?

Are you interested in counselling either alone or with your parents?

Is there another parent/guardian you could live with?

The information provided by me in this disclosure is to the best of my knowledge, true and correct.
